

“These new opportunities show us that people can live a full and meaningful life regardless of their disability.”

Emily Dash

Yes, I would like to make a donation towards renovating Roselands Respite Cottage, a facility that allows children and young adults with a disability to participate in programs and activities of their choice. The much-needed renovations will offer our clients better accessibility and greater independence, so people like Emily can explore their activities of choice:

- $60 for new light fittings
- $100 for new bathroom fittings
- $250 for resealing bathroom tiled floors
- $1200 for replacing carpet with vinyl in bedrooms
- $750 Trimming wall to assist with chair manoeuvrability
- $2000 to widen doorway and hang a new door
- $2500 to convert an existing office space to storage space
- or my choice of $_____

NOTE : We are hoping to have a final specification for the renovations submitted by June/July this year, and once we receive sufficient funding, the commencement of the project will follow and we are looking at approximately 4-6 months for completion. You will have the opportunity to visit Roselands Respite Cottage on an open day, once this facility is ready for our client's use by end of this year.

(Tick) please send me an invite to attend the open day at Roselands Respite Cottage, once all the renovations are complete

(Tick) please send me information about including a Bequest to Northcott Disability Services in my will
